Women Only! Sense of humor essential!

Living, Laughing, and Loving your way to the Good Life

How to Talk to Men gives you 14 communication tools to build long-lasting connections with the men in your life. You can learn to win the heart of your mate, earn the trust of your business associate or boss, and protect the aliveness of your sons.

This workshop opens your eyes to the protective nature of men, showing you how to win that warrior over to your side. You will bond deeply with other curious women who are committed to unraveling the knots that can occur between the sexes. Participants laugh, cry, and pour their hearts into the process of finding happiness with men. As soon as you learn each new tool, you practice, practice, practice, with supportive feedback from your coach and the other participants.

Some of the skills you'll come away with:

- ~Discover how to get your way by giving in
- ~Explore self-destructive habits (how are you currently shooting yourself in the foot?)
- ~Develop an environment of unconditional love
- ~Reduce your conflict by half
- ~How to focus your conversation on events rather than interpretations
- ~Forge a new basis for cooperation
- ~Improve your feelings of self-esteem
- ~Learn how to harness the power of men to increase your income

A vital part of building healthy collaborations with men is our ability, as women, to relax, nurture our femininity and forge uplifting, powerful and supportive alliances with other women.

“I have read “The Power of Now”, and taken countless seminars, but nothing had as profound an impact as this workshop. In the role-play, I got a totally accurate read on what I was doing in my communication that didn’t work. It was like a huge light bulb went off. I went from my head to my heart.” -Barbara Howe, Photographer

“The “How To Talk To Men” seminar taught me how to know and say what I want. I now have the “tools” to produce the best in any team situation. Simply asking for help has been monumental for me!”

You will...COME BACK HAPPY!
